An Empirical Study on the Feasibility of Manuscript-Free Submission: A Deep Dive into Academic Nihilism

An Anonymous Researcher Who Has Nothing To Say <sup>1,*</sup>

Abstract

This paper explores how to maximize academic output in a context where the authors have no research output, no experimental data, and a severe lack of motivation. Through quantum observations of a blank PDF file, we found that when the amount of information tends to zero, the reader's imagination reaches infinity.
